DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions - Election of Species Requirement

This application contains claims directed to the two groups of patentably distinct species of the claimed invention from which applicant must elect.

The first group of patentably distinct species from which applicant must elect is the species of boat lifts, as follows:

Figures 5-10 (slightly inclined pilings secured to end of dock);

Figures 11, 12, and 15 (vertical pilings disposed away from the end of the dock; end members cooperate with strap and cable/pulley system);

The second group of patentably distinct species from which applicant must elect is the species of cable-handling units (CHU), as follows:

Figure 4.

The examiner notes that the specification does not specify whether any particular one of the species of cable-handling units (CHU) must be used with any particular species of boat lifts. However, if this is the case, then applicant must coordinate his election so that he chooses the species of cable-handling unit (CHU) that is necessary to go with the species of boat lift that he elects.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from each of the two groups of patentably distinct species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, independent claim 17 appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Attorney Arthur Yeager on April 25, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
